

Thomas Taylor(Gulf War Veteran/Entrepreneur)

Thomas Taylor has been an accomplished Entrepreneur in which he's had his hands in several start-ups in the areas of wireless technology, and also starting a Travel Agency that has been in business for over 10 years with clients traveling all over the world. Thomas Taylor will be launching his new business venture in the area of property & casualty over the next two months.

Thomas Taylor has over 25 plus years of experience in Leadership, Project Management, Logistics & Supply Management, and plus extensive Sales Management background. Thomas Taylor has had first hand creative knowledge of building sustainable start-up businesses which allowed him to produce profitable revenues over a decade.

Thomas Taylor has always had a passion for helping people, especially Veterans. Over the years Thomas Taylor has made substantial contributions to various Military charities that were dear to his mission statement(Paying it forward with a Smile). Thomas Taylor has also mentored kids at the elementary,middle and high school levels. He's been a volunteer football coach for the Taylors Falcon Association. During his time coaching his youth team he was nominated to take over as Football Director for the Association.

Thomas Taylor is the father of 3 young adult kids and two grandchildren.Thomas loves spending time with his 3 kids and especially those 2 grand-daughters as well.Thomas Taylor is a decorated soldier that has served in the US.Navy and the Naval Reserve for a combination of 20 years as a counterintelligence officer. While in his Military career he has taught several hundred young adults about being great human beings and also being great leaders. Thomas Taylor loves playing basketball in his spare time with his 50 and over team that travel throughout the USA playing in tournaments.

Thomas Taylor states that " Success is measured by your individual drive" how you plant your seed will determine the outcome of what success means to you. Be great and great things will happen!